

The ICC has a new area open to the public to purchase books. Located in the lower downstairs area, the public has an insurmountable selection of books at bargain prices. Donations from all sales will be used to services & programs to island residents.

These books are a donation from Stephen York, former proprietor of Mr. York's Book Shoppe.